Baronet is considered by many good judges to be the best bull imported from Scotland in recent years. He has proven himself a great show bull, winning Junior Champion at Missouri and Illinois State Fairs and first prize Junior Yearling at the International in 1933. His first calf dropped at Sni-A-Bar was first in class at the 1934 International and topped the sale at that show. His second calf won first at Ogden and was sold there to head the Kootenai Valley Farm herd at Bonner's Fairy, Idaho. Anyone following the shows know what his calves have done this year. The pair of calves shown on the front cover of this catalog, sired by him, was first prize pair of calves at Missouri, Illinois, Iowa, and Topeka fairs. There are many good things by him in the sale.
